

Rebekah Cox, M.S., is a Wraparound family specialist who provides behavioral interventions to youth in their homes or in their communities. At the provider agency where she currently works, she developed the Wraparound program in a new service area and has served as lead facilitator facilitating Child Family Team meetings. She has also participated in Team Decision Meetings, provided intensive care coordination and assisted team members with training, developing creative interventions, and adhering to Wraparound standards. In her current role, she serves as a programs manager and supervises employees in the Wraparound and Therapeutic Behavioral Services programs.