

Melinda FurFuro has been a pioneer in the nationwide movement toward family-centered practices. She assisted in the development of the very first non-profit family organization in San Diego County, helped develop the Children, Youth, and Family Network system of care agency and has worked in numerous capacities serving families. In addition to performing the duties of family support partner/parent partner for several years, she is now the program coordinator for the Parents' Program where she manages a staff of family support partners.
