

Steve Goclowski, M.S.W, L.C.S.W., was a regional programs director of a Wraparound provider agency in Los Angeles County. He has been involved in Wraparound implementation and leadership since 2001. His professional activities include clinical practice, agency administration, training, and consulting. Steve serves on county and state Wraparound committees, and has consulted for the California Department of Social Services (CDSS). His conference and training presentations include presenting at four California Wraparound Institutes. A CDSS-certified Wraparound trainer, Steve's areas of expertise includes Wraparound implementation, redesign, and organizational development in provider agencies.