

Benjamin Thomas Greer, J.D., is a former special deputy attorney general with the California Attorney General's Office. As a specializing deputy attorney general, he was the lead member of the Attorney General's Human Trafficking Special Projects Team, he co-chaired the Attorney General's Human Trafficking Work Group, and he was the primary author of the report released in 2012, "The State of Human Trafficking in California – OAG." He is currently a senior instructor with the California Governor's Office of Emergency Service's Specialized Training Institute and a founding member of the Human Trafficking Investigations and Training Institute.