

Martha Martinez has nearly 15 years of experience in serving the mental health needs of families and children. In the past, she worked with Wraparound services as a parent partner and as a resource development specialist. Currently, she works as a parent support liaison for Five Acres, where she provides support, advocacy, and community networking opportunities to families with children living in the Residential Therapeutic Program.