

Jennifer McClain has 20 years of experience in human services. Most of her this is in the Mariposa County Department of Human Services, where she was employed for more than 18 years. She has worked in various capacities in social services, including eligibility, employment and training, system support, and fiscal. She is currently assistant chief fiscal officer at Marin County Health and Human Services, where she financially administers social services, veterans, aging and Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act programs and grants.