

Wendy Mondfrans, J.D., has been a senior deputy probation officer overseeing the Juvenile Probation Division for Lake County for more than seven years. She is responsible for Wraparound, Title IV-E placement, and other programs related to alternatives to detention. Prior to this, she served as deputy county counsel, where she advised the board of supervisors, departments, retirement board and special districts regarding personnel, liability, management, and other legal issues. She received her juris doctorate from the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law in Sacramento.