

Tracy Ortega has worked closely with children and families since 1991. She currently serves as a certified parent partner and parenting class instructor, educating, supporting and empowering families and providing resource support. Ortega also has experience as an early childhood education and care provider, where she created curriculum, completed child assessments, provided family education and support, and trained other staff.