

Edward Pieczenik, L.C.S.W., is a psychiatric social worker with Kaiser Permanente Medical Center, where he administers diagnostic evaluations, formulates treatment plans, and provides psychotherapy. With more than 25 years of experience as a trainer and practitioner, he has conducted workshops in human services agencies throughout California, made presentations at national and international conferences, and taught courses at universities and colleges. Pieczenik is also the recipient of an Outstanding Service Award for Teaching from UC Davis Continuing and Professional Education.