

Joanne Pritchard, M.A., has worked in public child welfare since 2000 as a social worker, social work supervisor, and trainer. Currently, she is a training and implementation specialist and serves as the Common Core 3.0 and eLearning specialist. As an instructor, Pritchard specializes in providing technical assistance for counties implementing or practicing Team Decision Making. Prior to her working in the training field, Pritchard provided direct service to children and families in a county agency for more than 12 years. She is passionate about child-centered, family focused best practices in child welfare.
