

Richard Puls, Psy.D., M.F.T., has worked for the Orange County Social Services Agency for nearly two decades, and he currently serves as a senior supervisor and staff trainer. He also practices individual, family and couples therapy, specializing in marital problems, sexual addiction, anger management, depression and anxiety, spiritual issues, children in foster care, and adoption issues.