

Michael J. Rauso, Psy.D, M.F.T., is the regional administrator for the Metro North and West Los Angeles offices. Previously, Rauso was the Wraparound director for the Los Angeles County Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) for 10 years. Los Angeles County's Wraparound currently serves over 2,000 children from DCFS, probation and mental health. Rauso also was the director of the Family to Family Initiative, System of Care, Family Group Decision Making, Parents in Partnership and other strength-based, community focused programs for the department. Prior to his current position at the department, he worked for a community-based organization which was one of the first Wraparound agencies in the county.
