

Laura Simonette has more than 10 years of experience as a probation officer, with practice in mental health, human trafficking, and Child and Family Team facilitation, among other fields. She has also developed curricula and conducted trainings for Riverside County Probation, on subjects ranging from gang intervention and Commercially and Sexually Exploited Children to the Continuum of Care Reform and the Interstate Compact for Adult Offenders System.