

Kim Stokem, L.M.F.T., has more than 20 years' experience working in behavioral health through Contra Costa County and community based organizations. She has extensive training in Wraparound for ages 0 to 21 through the Children's System of Care. She has expertise in early childhood development, infant and child mental health, didactic work, and Wraparound. She has been chairperson of the statewide Early Childhood Wraparound work group and a participant in the Wraparound Standards work group and Wraparound Certification work group.