

Tara Zielenski, M.S.W., A.C.S.W., is a Team Decision Making (TDM) facilitator with a county department of social services. She has developed TDM and Family to Family curriculum, and served as acting supervisor of her department's TDM facilitators and support staff. She represents her agency in collaborative work with community partners and Wraparound providers. Zielenski also works as a mediation consultant for post-adoption agreements between potential adoptive parents and birth parents/family members. Her areas of expertise also include child welfare, domestic violence, and sexual abuse.