

April D. Fernando, PhD is a Policy Fellow and the TCOM Training Lead at Chapin Hall at the University of Chicago. Dr. Fernando was previously at WestCoast Children's Clinic in Oakland, CA where she was an administrator and trained mental health professionals for over 20 years. She was a tenured faculty at Holy Names University for over 10 years, where she co-directed the Masters Program in Counseling Psychology. Dr. Fernando works with non-profit agencies as well as child welfare and behavioral health care systems in implementing Transformational Collaborative Outcomes Management (TCOM) and utilizing the Child and Adolescent Needs and Strengths (CANS). A licensed clinical psychologist, she brings her years of experience as an educator, clinician and mental health administrator to her work with TCOM and the CANS. Dr. Fernando is the Chapin Hall and the Praed Foundation's lead in California, providing support to the implementation of the CANS with DHCS and DSS.
