

College and Career Fair

1. Find three colleges or technical/trade school or employers where you can apply, based on a SPARK that you have in your life.
 2. Write down one piece of information you did not know about college or careers prior to the College and Career Fair.
 3. Get one signature from someone with whom you talked about your future after high school.
-