

Chapters 9-12 Choice Board

The yellow activities are required, and then you choose AT LEAST TWO of the blue activities to also complete. They must add up to 8.

"Have-To" Column	2 point options	4 point options
Write four theme statements and place them in your Google Folder.	Use the sticky note method through these chapters. Place a sticky note in places where you feel where the author supports the theme. Meet with Mrs. Andersen to determine your side challenge.	Create a journal throughout the unit. Within this journal, you should track (at the very least) the following literary elements: characterization throughout the novel, theme, conflict, and setting. You may set this up however you'd like.
Meet with Mrs. Andersen for a short lesson on theme.	A Quizlet with theme terms. You will need to know these when you show mastery of symbolism at the completion of this unit.	Create a digital timeline and continue it throughout the novel (this is an option for each chapter pairing, so it will be an ongoing activity. You can do create this in any digital form you'd like. Here are a few ideas: an infographic, a slide deck, a Prezi.
Take the Quiz for these four chapters. It is located in Canvas, and you will need to have me type in the password.	Theme: Take your theme statements one step further and write a paragraph for one explaining how/why that theme is prevalent in this novel.	Bring your ideas to me! Want a bigger challenge or have a better idea? Present your ideas on how you will demonstrate your knowledge of the novel to me.