

 All categories are dependent on type of presentation. For instance, if “Great” for conventions require no spelling and grammar errors for a paper then a spoken interview would require proper grammar and pronunciation when spoken

All presentation models are suggestions and conversations with the teacher must be had in order to figure out where a certain presentation tool will fit. For instance, a Google Slide presentation would be similar in grade to a Prezi.

Rubric Categories	A+	A	B	C	D
Vocabulary	Used main vocabulary terms discussed in questions to all interviewees	Used main vocabulary terms in questions to all interviewees	Used main vocabulary terms in some of the interviews	Used some vocabulary terms in some of the interviews	Needs to reinterview/do over
Conventions	No Errors: spelling, grammar, punctuation, caps & paragraph.	Very Few Errors: spelling, grammar, punctuation, caps & paragraph	Some Errors: spelling, grammar, punctuation, caps & paragraph	Many Errors: spelling, grammar, punctuation, caps & paragraph	Rough Draft Quality
Organization	Interview flows well/questions are asked at an appropriate and beneficial time.	Interview flows well but with some uncertain points.	Interview is choppy but follows a logical direction.	Interview is choppy but lacks a clear purpose/direction.	Interview is not rehearsed and there is no evidence of thought for follow-up questions.
Presentation	Professional: Visual & Text white space balance, Font Size, Spacing, Borders, Overall Appearance	Few Issues: Visual & Text white space balance, Font Size, Spacing, Borders, Overall Appearance	Some Issues: Visual & Text white space balance, Font Size, Spacing, Borders, Overall Appearance	Many Issues: Visual & Text white space balance, Font Size, Spacing, Borders, Overall Appearance	Rough Draft Quality
Presentation Model	Professional-level podcast/video interview. (Also, other options not listed are possible but may have to have a conversation with the teacher)	Presentation where the audience controls the pace of the learning i.e. website where information can be accessed simultaneously but independently..	High quality yet traditional presentation model where the presenter is still the focus of the presentation.	Google Slide Presentation with mixed-in audio clips of the interview.	Paper detailing the interview

Grade
--------------	--

