

Logos, Ethos, Pathos

Editorial Choices

DIRECTIONS: 1. Choose one article to annotate, ID, and analyze with a partner.
 2. Choose one article to annotate, ID, and analyze by yourself.
 3. Conference with Mrs. Kastanek following completion.

Annotate: Arguments that appeal to Logos (in pink), Pathos (in green), and Ethos (in yellow).

Label: Underline and label any of the 4Core Persuasive Strategies.

Discuss: Reasons for your choices and whether this is the best way to persuade the audience.

Why Kids Need Recess	Congress Should Give The Government More Money for Wildfires	Postseason track changes should begin with eliminating district meets
Rap Lyrics on Trial	Abolishing the Penny Makes Good Sense	Why We Need to Keep the Penny (and Dollar Bill) in Circulation
Should the Olympics have a permanent home?	Burning ivory proves a valuable solution.	O'er the ramparts we watched as athletes were kneeling